

Halloween International Film Festival "Official Selection" Submission Form

I/We have read the Halloween International Film Festival Rules and agree to comply with them. Furthermore, I/We represent and warrant as follows with respect to my/our submission(s):

- There are no depictions of actual or real violence against people or animals.
- It is an original work.
- There are no disputes regarding ownership (including characters and music).
- There is no defamation, invasion of privacy, violation of rights of publicity, intellectual property infringement, copyright, or similar violation of law.

I/We hereby authorize the Halloween International Film Festival to enter my/our submission into the Festival in accordance with all Festival Rules listed on the website and/or submission package and agree to indemnify, defend and hold the Festival harmless from any and all loss, damage, cost, claim, liability or expense, including without limitation attorneys' fees, related to or arising out of my/our breach of the above or the Festival Rules, or by my/our submission, whether or not groundless.

In the event my/our submission is selected for the Festival, the Festival may request copies of any related press kits, trailers, promotional videos, poster images, behind-the-scenes materials and other marketing materials produced by participant ("Marketing Materials") and I/We grant the Festival a non-exclusive limited license to display not only my/our submission at multiple screenings but also copy and use our submission and Marketing Materials for the sole purpose of presenting and promoting the Festival and its participants.

To the best of my/our knowledge, I certify the above statements are true and completely accurate and I/We understand failure to adhere to the Festival Rules may result in disqualification.
